

Issy les Moulineaux - February 27th, 2012

Luceor, sas announced that it has secured $3.7 million in a second round of global financing led by Orkos Capital and 3T Capital. Initial investors also participated. This financing round brings the total investment in the company to $7.2 million. Luceor will use the new funds to strategically invest in consolidating its technology leadership, deploy EMEA value-added distribution, and develop partnerships with large integrators focused on outdoor network deployments,

"Luceor is extremely pleased to welcome on board two proven technology investors such as Orkos Capital and 3T," said Christian d'Orival, President and CEO of Luceor. "Orkos Capital and 3T bring both experience and strong links with the business and research communities. Their support demonstrates the credibility of Luceor's vision and business model, as evidenced by successful deployments in highly demanding environments such as Homeland Security Special Forces and large logistics at industrial sites and in cities."

Pierre-Yves Meerschman and Jean-Jacques Bertrand Partners at Orkos capital said: "We had identified the strategic area of High-Performance Wireless Critical Infrastructure as a sustainable market. We have found with Luceor a clear vision, differentiating technology, as well as an experienced and committed team with a clear sense of execution focus."

Nicolas Tcherdakoff, Venture Partner at 3T Capital, and Daniel Caclin, Partner at 3T Capital added: "High-Performance wireless is becoming a key issue for critical government and enterprise operations. WiMESH flexibility is a key differentiator. Luceor is very well positioned to capitalize on this trend and increase its technology gap. Luceor benefited of Telecom Paris Tech incubator program and will continue leveraging research projects through their relationship with Institut Mines Telecom."

Luceor also announced the appointment of Mr. Pierre-Yves Meerschman, Jean-Jacques Bertrand, Daniel Caclin to Luceor's Board of Directors. Mr Meerschman, Mr Bertrand and Mr Caclin join current board members Khatarr Chkaiban, former founder, President and CEO of Valoris and Didier Herrmann, former president and CEO of Unilog.

About Orkos Capital

Orkos capital is a leading independent venture capital firm focused in the Information Technology and Communication sector. Currently investing its 3rd fund, Orkos III FCPR (supported by CDC Entreprises, within the framework of FSI France Investissement program), Orkos Capital team invested in the past 15 years in many new leaders of their market, such as SES Astra, Bouygues Telecom, Allociné, Musiwave, Cogent Communications.

About 3T Capital

Focusing on technology transfer and innovative companies within the Information Technology and Communication sector from their seed, start-up and early-stage phases, and a partner with Institut Mines Telecom, Telecom Technologies Transfert (3T) is funded by the European Investment Fund (The present investment benefits from the European Union's Competitiveness and Innovation Framework Programme), CDC Entreprises, within the framework of FSI France Investissement program, and Institut Mines Telecom.

Founded by seasoned entrepreneurs with strong track record launching and growing technology companies, including successful transaction sales, Telecom Technologies Transfert (3T) is an independently managed Investment Fund.

About Luceor

Luceor is the leading provider of WiMESH™ high-flexibility outdoor wireless networks. Luceor's fully distributed solutions perform under the most demanding circumstances in open, dense or changing environments. System deployments can be permanent or temporary, fixed or mobile. "Wired-like" reliability allows customers to take their critical applications wherever they are needed for seamless operations. Luceor's solutions are unique in the industry and provide organizations with the integrated IT infrastructure they need for true global efficiency.